Studio policies:

Absences:

- Lessons have been reserved for student at a specific day and time on an ongoing, weekly basis.
- Student is responsible for reserved lesson time until a minimum notice of 2 lessons is provided to discontinue.
- There are no makeups given for missed lessons.
- In the event of an anticipated absence, student may receive one excused absence credit ("floating credit") per semester block. The semester blocks are as follows: September 1 - January 31 (Fall / Winter) and February 1 – June 30 (Winter / Spring). A floating credit becomes available to new students after four lessons and must be requested in advance no later than 12 noon on the same day of the lesson scheduled. This credit will be used toward the next billing cycle and is not refundable. Floating credits may not be used as part of the 2-lesson lesson cancellation notification.
- In the event of a teacher absence, the teacher may arrange for a substitute. There are no credits for lessons missed if a substitute has been provided. If a substitute has not been provided, student will receive a credit to be applied toward the next billing cycle.

Weather and lessons:

- Creative Music does not automatically follow the school closing schedule.
- Lesson cancellation decisions will be made no later than 12 noon of lesson day.
- In the event of weather, notification of lesson cancellation will be emailed and/or texted to student as well as posted on our website (www.thecreativemusiccenter.com) and Facebook page.
- Should lessons be cancelled, online lessons may be an option and offered by student's teacher. If online lessons are not an option, student will receive a credit to be applied toward the next billing cycle.

Other:

- Creative Music Center is not responsible for students or siblings of students left unattended.

Payment Information:

- Lesson payments are due in advance and will be charged to credit card designated for auto pay on student's account on the 28th of the month prior to lessons being given.
- The number of lessons billed is based solely on the number of lessons that are allocated to student in the next given month. (e.g., If student's lesson day is Monday and there are four Mondays in a given month, student will be billed for four lessons. If there are five Mondays in a given month, student will be billed for five lessons.)
- Lessons will be pro-rated for new students according to their start date.
- In the event that lessons are discontinued, resulting lesson credits may be held on student's account for his/her return to lessons, transferred to family member's lessons, applied toward student's rental or used for purchase of store merchandise.
- Payment for sheet music, books and/or musical accessories given to a student by his/her teacher are to be paid in-store at time of receipt. Any items on student's account that have not been paid will be charged to credit card designated for auto pay on student's account.
- If student's account becomes 10 days past due, a non-refundable late fee of $20 will be assessed and student's lessons may be put on hold until his/her account is brought current.
- A $30 fee will be charged to my account for any checks returned.
- Failure to pay the full balance on student's account may result in default at which time student (parent/guardian if student is under 18 years old) will become responsible for Creative Music Center's costs incurred due to the collections process.
